Seniors

Our freshman year was hectic, exciting, and challenging. We were important freshmen, causing trouble, cutting classes, meeting the other kids, and having fun. We raised money selling cookies, brownies and cakes at our class food sales under the Linden tree. Our president was Gary Pachico; vice president, George Santos; secretary, Shelley Ben David; treasurer, Laurie Bryant; historian, Dinah Keeler; and advisors, Mr. Daria and Miss Green. Mr. and Miss Freshman Class were Ronnie Brown and Suzie West.

Sophomore year was quite productive, with the class working together in various projects. We sold boxes of chocolate turtles, raffled a black and white television set, and sold coffee and donuts in the summer session of high school. Our president was Mary McCarthy; vice president, Gretchen Schilling; and secretary, Jo-Ann Fragosa. Mr. and Miss Sophomore Class were Ronnie Brown and Mary McCarthy.

Our Junior year was highlighted by the Junior Prom, in June, when Patti Correllus was crowned the queen of the court. In November, we had a horseshow on the softball field; and judges awarded ribbons in each contest. The Junior Class Play, A THURBER CARNIVAL, was a big success. Both girls' and boys' varsity basketball teams were playing in the state tournament. Our president was Gary Pachico; vice president, Gretchen Schilling; secretary, Jo-Ann Fragosa; treasurer, Barbara Handy; and historian, Prudy Peckham. Our advisors were Mr. Weissberg and Mr. Lemenager.

Mr. and Miss Junior Class were Peter Cronig and Prudy Peckham.

Senior Class Officers and Advisors

Mr. Roger Lemenager, advisor; Gretchen Schilling, vice president; Jo-ann Fragosa, secretary; Gary Pachico, president; Terry Andrade, treasurer; Ellen Feil, historian; Mr. Milton Weissberg, advisor.

This year, we are busy applying to colleges, getting jobs, and planning our futures, awaiting June 8, 1975, when we all will hopefully receive our diplomas. The yearbook staff eagerly has been meeting deadlines to get its publication printed this spring. We have senior privileges this year, the open-ended day open on both ends, a coffee machine, and the music center is our homeroom. Mr. Ross, Mr. Herr, Mr. Nute, and Mr. Donald are our homeroom teachers. Thirty-four seniors attended College Day on October 30, 1974, at Cape Cod Community College to meet representatives from several colleges. The learning center was moved into its present location, and the guidance department was relocated in the superintendent's former office. The newly-created drama department offered 9 classes this year, taught by Mr. Duncan Ross. The radio station WVOI broadcasts the Saturday Showdown on Saturday mornings.

A Thurber Carnival

Our major fund-raising event of our junior year was the production of James Thurber's "A Thurber Carnival." The play, a collection of comical skits, starred a cast of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, all of whom held at least one major role. Music to accompany the acting was provided by Beverly Erickson and Neal Stiller.

Duncan Ross directed the show, which played on three successive nights in December. Each performance was well attended by an enthusiastic audience, and our class budget benefited greatly from the production.

More important, however, was the enjoyment and satisfaction which each participant gained from being part of the show. For many students it was their first experience with acting, set design, stage management, or drama in general. And, as any one of those involved will confess, it was a very rewarding experience.

"Morning Has Broken"

Our Junior Prom, entitled "Morning Has Broken," took place on the lovely spring evening of June 1, 1974, at the Harborview Hotel. A large, illuminated sunrise mural showered the dance floor with a soft glow as the music began. Before long, it was time to choose the queen and her court.

The Junior girls and their escorts were presented by the master of ceremonies, Mr. Roger Lemenager. Then the couples danced to the theme song as the band played. The judges made their decision, and the court was announced:

Sally Renear
Linde Tesch
Kristen Anderson
Patricia Corio
Paulette Silva
Suzanne West

Each girl received a rose and took her place behind the throne, awaiting the arrival of the queen. Miss Patricia Correllus, escorted by James Rogers, was the queen of the gala.

A delicious buffet dinner was waiting in the dining room, and more dancing ended a lovely evening.

Early Graduates

Two years ago, a program was introduced which allowed students who had successfully completed an accelerated course of study and had met all graduation requirements to graduate at the end of their junior year. Our class was the first to participate in this program, and last June six juniors received their diplomas. Now, although they are no longer in school with us, we still remember them for their friendship, participation, and contributions to our class and to the school, and truly consider them our classmates.

For the Vineyarders, 1974 was definitely a building year. With few returning lettermen, the Purple and White were a young and inexperienced yet eager squad. The season began slowly with few bright spots, but the team gained strength and confidence with each game, and showed a marked improvement after a rearrangement midway through the schedule. This all led to the impressive and well-deserved victory over P-Town in the final game, a satisfying finish to a tough season.

The Freshman team came on strong and had an overwhelming season, giving the Vineyard fans a promise of future victories and perhaps the Mayflower League Title.

This year's soccer team was young, and the inexperience will explain the record. It was a fun year, and the team enjoyed themselves. Soccer is a growing sport in the high school. We learned sportsmanship, thanks to the excellent coaching ability of Coach Jay Schofield.

The field hockey season was a fine one; our record was 5-1-4, which made us Co-champs of the Cape and Islands. The team was satisfied with the record and also the team was very close. This helped us to get where we did. Our coach also did a fine job and all the seniors of this years team wish the team and Miss Doyle all the luck in future season.

This year's cross country team was considerably larger than those of the past few years, and the increase in numbers payed off. The team finished the season with an overall record of 6-3 and a league record of 4-3, sharing the third place ranking in the league with Sacred Heart. The Vineyarders placed fourth in the Mayflower league meet, and came in second in the Cape and Islands open. Next year promises to be just as successful as all but one of this season's runners will be returning.

1974-75 was another great season for the Purple and White. Although they did not win the league championship, they won enough games to qualify for the State Tourney.

League play started out with the shocking upset by Chatham. The Vineyarders then took their next three games with ease, but lost a heartbreaker to undefeated Nauset in overtime here on the island. There was still hope for retention of the league title, but the second loss to Nauset made that impossible.

There were many highlights to the season, the most memorable being: the thrilling 65-63 win over rival P-town; Ronald Brown scoring his 1000th career point; and the final league game in which the Vineyarders manhandled Harwich, 103-60.

Unfortunatley, this writing was due before tournament play began, but it should be safe to say that the Vineyarders showed their class and gave it their all.

The Vineyard Girls' Basketball dynasty which began two years ago continued to strengthen this season as the girls won their third straight undefeated league championship. And, with the J.V.'s finishing undefeated as well, it looks as if the winning streak will continue for at least three more years.

There were few real contests this year as coach Bob Nute could substitute freely and rely as much upon his second string as he could on his starters. The only really close game was the Nauset encounter where the Vineyarders found themselves behind most of the way, then rallied to pull off an exciting win.

With the regular season over, the girls began post-season play. As of this writing they have defeated Bourne for the Cape Cod championship and are on their way to the State Tourney where they will surely do well.

The Minnesingers are doing very well preparing for their May tour of New England and competition in the Southeastern Music Festival. Stuart Grey and Bill Smith were accepted into the Southeast District Festival Chorus. Stuart was also accepted into the All-State Chorus.

Together with the band, chorus, and jazz band we are raising money for an April trip to Nova Scotia.

This year the Vineyarder Staff set out to create a yearbook somewhat different from those of the past. Although we have been hampered by restrictions in size and budget, I feel that we have succeeded in putting out a publication which does not comply with the previously formal yearbook standards. I hope that this trend of innovation and change for the better will continue in the future, and each time will result in a more interesting and artistic "Vineyarder."

My special thanks for help above and beyond the call of duty go to Ellen Feil, a great typist and "public relations" person, and to the two fantastic photographers — Naomi Lyons and Bruce Blair — who really made this book a special one.

This year, the Student Council has set up better guidelines for closer communication between the administration, school committee representatives, and the student body. This has been a year of change within our school system that, in some areas, we have opposed, while in other areas, the change has been long awaited. Thanks to better rapport between the Council and other school functions, along with the help of our advisor, Mr. Tyrus Houston, we feel that as a group, much progress has been made in the expansion of the scope of our student government.

Sincerely,
Colin Ewing
